

Bio for Jaret Cardinal

Jaret is a member of the Sucker Creek First Nation. Jaret is a former Chief of the Sucker Creek First Nation, the former Grand Chief of Treaty 8 First Nations of Alberta, and was a signatory to the United League of Indigenous Nations. An international Indigenous Treaty with representatives from Canada, the US, Australia, and New Zealand.

Through this international Treaty work, Jaret was asked to be parts of Indigenous delegations to meet with the US Congress and Senators, the members of the EU in Brussels, and the German government.

Jaret went to school in High Prairie, and graduated from EW Pratt, and then went on to the University of Alberta where he completed his Bachelor of Arts in Native Studies.

On a personal level, Jaret has been with his wife Becki since their days at EW Pratt. And together their family Includes their son Adam and their daughter Mya.

Jaret has been working in the field of Indigenous Relations for the past 26 years.

Session Descriptor:

The importance of the Principle of Indigenous Treaties

There are many principles that are built into the Treaties with Indigenous Nations. Knowing and understanding these principles is fundamental to reconciliation.