

Guidelines for the Slave Lake Petroleum Association Scholarship

$1000 Scholarship Available

For students who have been actively involved in volunteer activities and are pursuing post-secondary education

The Slave Lake Petroleum Association Scholarship is to be awarded yearly to grade 12 graduates in Slave Lake, this will also include "mature students". This would be classified as a student who has taken a one-year hiatus from secondary school, with no post-secondary attendance. The scholarship of $1000.00 each will be awarded to 2 students who are planning to continue their education at an Alberta Post Secondary Institution. The intent of the Scholarship is to reward graduates who have demonstrated citizenship interests and scholastic ability.

The application will therefore be assessed on students submission of the following:

1. A written essay describing what it means to be involved in an extra-curricular activity
2. A list of school extra-curricular activity
3. A list of community involvement
4. Academic Report of Grades: Must be taking 5 – 30 level subjects (5 Credit), of which 2 must be English 30 level and Math 30 level, excluding Work Experience and Special Projects

NOTE: Enrolment must be confirmed before award is granted.

Deadline for applications is June 1st of each year. Return to Roland Michener Career Coaches.
