Tansi! (Hello), my name is James Fabian Willier. I am an Indigenous Chef from Sucker Creek First Nation. I specialize in a land to table approach on Indigenous Cuisine.

Using what the land provides, as well as 20 years of experience as an Industry Chef, I offer what I like to call "Modern Indigenous Cooking". Utilizing some of our traditional ingredients and giving them a somewhat modern touch.

I have found this approach to be very successful in reaching both our young and older generations, in and outside the classroom.
