

Landon Persson Memorial Scholarship

Landon Persson was a vibrant little boy who had a love for machines. In his honour and memory, the Landon Persson Memorial Scholarship is to be awarded annually to a Roland Michener Secondary School graduate.

A scholarship of $1,000 will be awarded to a student who is planning to further his/her education at a post-secondary institution in any program of study. The intent of the scholarship is to award monies to a graduate who has met the following criteria:

1. Graduate must be entering a further education program. (Proof of enrollment must be provided)
2. Written essay describing specifically which program he/she is planning to enter and why he/she has chosen this area.
3. Good academic standing. (Must provide proof of courses and marks.)

Application must be submitted to the Career Coaches office no later than 4:00pm on June 1.
